REGULAR AGENDA

The Council considered the following items of regular business:

Review of FY 2024-25
Unaudited Financial Results

Finance Director Kiran Bawa reviewed the fiscal year (FY) 2024-25 unaudited financial results as of June 30, 2025, that included the FY 2025 report summary, FY2025 revenues and expenditures, uses of year-end funds, American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) update, Equipment Replacement Fund, Capital Funds, and Trust Funds.

Staff answered questions from the Council regarding the Facilities Maintenance and Facilities Capital Funds, budget carryovers for delayed projects and associated risk of increased costs, Project Facility Assessments in the 5-year plan (2027 and beyond), ambulance services reimbursement, approach to staffing, current transfer tax rate, and possibility of a replacement cost savings plan for City facilities over 100 years old.

There was no Public Comment received.

This item was informational and required no action by Council.

Consideration of FY
2024-25-Year End
Transfers

Mayor Smegal Andersen read aloud the recommendations for Council's consideration of FY 2024-25-year end transfers.

City Administrator Rosanna Bayon Moore relayed that staff is asking that unspent funds, resulting from underspending and greater than anticipated revenues, be transferred between departments so end of year financials are within the audited framework.

Council questioned how the dollar amounts were derived, what the Budget Advisory and Financial Planning Committees thought about the request, and the status of the financial audit. Additionally, they expressed concern for real estate transfer tax trends.

In response, Finance Director Bawa replied to questions and provided an audit status.

There was no Public Comment received.
